

All Saints School Summer Reading List

In order to promote continued reading improvement and learning over the summer, we have put together an All Saints School Summer Reading list.

Required All School Books:

We are asking that all students read (or be read to depending on their age and ability) the following books-

- Prek to Second Grade "Charlotte's Web" by E.B. White
- Third to Fifth Grade "Secret Garden" by Frances Hodgson Burnett
- Sixth to Eighth Grade "Under the Blood Red Sun" by Graham Salisbury

We highly encourage all parents to read the books as a way to encourage discussion and interest for their children. We will talk about these books when the students return to school in August.

We are also asking the all students read (or be read to depending on their age and ability) 3 to 4 additional books in the summer. The following is a list of books that are options for the students to read. It would be nice for students to read from our suggested reading list to create some commonality for the students. It is good for the students to keep a reading journal on the books they have read. Reading is such an important aspect of the students' education and we need to do what we can to encourage it!
